

Please join us as we celebrate the Centenary of Gianna Gobbi's birth, a milestone in the history of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Gianna always preferred to fade into the background so our tribute will honor Gianna by honoring the work of the children that continues to nurture joy in us. Each week we will focus our theme on a chapter of her book, Listening to God With Children.

HOW CAN YOU SUPPORT THIS MOST IMPORTANT TRIBUTE?

PRAY!

For the continual planting of pearls of joy around the world.

REFLECT!

Discern whether you might provide a brief reflection on pearls of joy you have seen in the children, in your life, or in the life of your community.

SHARE!

1. A simple, brief video (cell phone or camera) of atrium sessions, interviews with catechists, and/or parents that shares a favorite work of the child, a presentation, material, or response to a presentation. Show us how the pearls of joy delight your community. This joy maybe found in your personal growth, your family, your atrium, your parish. If you include the work of a child, we will need parental permission, please use the form found on our website here:

2. A reflection we can share on our website and social media sites during the 100 days leading up to Gianna's centenary. Your reflection might be an atrium experience, a favorite presentation, an observation, or insight. Email your submissions to: 100yearsofjoy@cgsusa.org

Our 100-day kickoff begin on Saturday September 7, 2019 at our Annual Membership Meeting.

Thank you for your collaboration!
