Request for Ovarian Cancer Research Proposals

Announcement Release Date: December 15, 2021

Application Due Date: January 28, 2022

Award Announcement Date: February 18, 2022

The Department of Obstetrics, Gynecology and Reproductive Science and the Tisch Cancer Institute of Mount Sinai are dedicated to supporting innovative research to prevent, detect and cure ovarian cancer and to improve the lives of those living with ovarian cancer. With this RFA, we seek to support research focused on ovarian cancer. Basic science, translational, epidemiological, behavioral, health disparity and other research topics will be considered. This funding mechanism is designed to advance meritorious investigator-initiated hypothesis-driven research focused on ovarian cancer. Faculty members of the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai with concepts that are innovative are eligible.

Review Criteria: Proposals will be prioritized based on novelty, scientific quality, significance, impact and likelihood of leading to submission of future grant applications.

Proposal Requirements: Proposals should include:

- Background and specific aims
- Research strategy addressing significance, innovation, approach

Funding Guidelines: This award will offer a total direct cost of up to $50,000 over 18 months (no extensions will be allowed). Allowable costs: salary and fringe benefits for research personnel, supplies. Unallowable costs: Investigator effort, travel, meals, consulting services.
