

Technology Seminar | Wine Tour & Tasting | Dinner Meeting

Thursday, October 19, 2017

LaBelle Winery, Amherst, NH | 2:30 pm - 8:00 pm

The Steel Fabricators of New England (SFNE) is pleased to invite you to attend a Technology Seminar, Wine Tour and Tasting and Dinner Meeting on Thursday, October 19, 2017.

Technology Seminar -- The technology seminar conducted by STRUMIS, will highlight the utilization of technology to stay ahead of the fabrication curve and remain both relevant and profitable in an ever more dynamic industry. Topics including Business management, ensuring transparency throughout each department, and safeguarding management of resources effectively will be discussed. The seminar will also review workflow and integration with partner programs to manage day-to-day fabrication business.

Dinner Meeting -- Shelley C. Finnigan, S.E., Global Technical Sales Engineer and Head of Technical Sales & Marketing for the Americas for ArcelorMittal International North America will present, "From Scrap to Steel: An Overview of Steelmaking". In this one-hour presentation, Shelley will review the process of steelmaking from the procurement, sorting and cleaning of scrap, to the completion of flat- and long-rolled products. The presentation will explore the differences amongst commonly specified structural grades, and will review the considerations that should be taken when selecting the appropriate specification for a particular application.

Wine Tour and Tasting -- In between the seminar and dinner, SFNE members and colleagues will tour the LaBelle Winery and enjoy a LaBelle wine tasting.

During the networking reception, attendees will meet with industry trade partners. The SFNE dinner meeting provides a great sponsorship opportunity. The cost is only $100. For this you get a tabletop for the networking reception, your linked logo on the SFNE website, and special recognition during the dinner and in the marketing materials.
