

Family Engagement: Best Practices

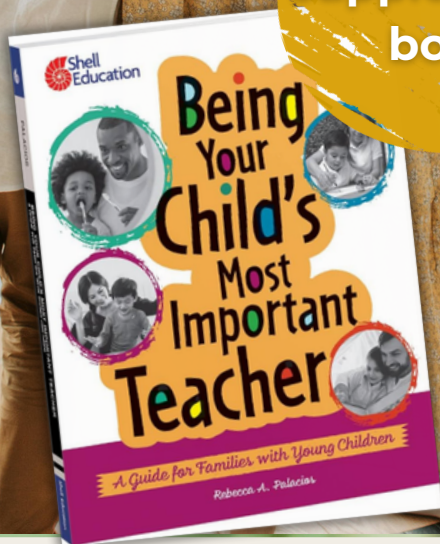

This self-paced family engagement training is designed to empower families with practical, easy-to-use strategies that support young children's development and learning at home.

Developed using best practices from Teacher Created Materials, this three-part online training series guides families through simple, meaningful ways to:

- ✱ Strengthen daily learning routines
- ✱ Build early literacy skills
- ✱ Spark curiosity through engaging STEAM activities

Participants will receive a free course textbook: Being Your Child's Most Important Teacher: A Guide for Families with Young Children by Rebecca A. Palacios.

Includes supplemental book!
