

Embracing Neurodiversity: A 3-Part Training Series

In this engaging three-part training series, you will discover how embracing neurodiversity can lead to more inclusive and equitable early childhood learning environments. Participants will explore how diverse ways of thinking, processing, and interacting can enhance classrooms.

Hosted by: Keith Pentz,
National Education Advisor for
Kaplan Early Learning Company

Through practical strategies and thoughtful reflection, you will:

- Welcome varied perspectives
- Challenge limiting systems
- Foster environments where diverse ideas and experiences can flourish

Training Dates: September 15, 22, and 29

6:30 PM - 8:00 PM
