

Your Guide to FAYETTEVILLE SERVICES

Hello, Neighbor!

Fayetteville, Georgia was established in 1823 and is now home to nearly 20,000 residents. Serving as the county seat of Fayette County, Fayetteville is 15 minutes south of the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport. Recent growth includes City Hall and City Center Park, which precipitated a new wave of investment in the historic downtown district. The west side is booming around Piedmont Fayette Hospital and the world-famous Trilith Studios, and the north side continues to serve as a regional retail destination anchored by the Fayette Pavilion shopping center. Known for low crime rates, excellent public education, and high quality of life, Fayetteville is a great place to work, play, and raise a family.
