Yeat Yeat, Don't Tell Me! S1E7 Questions (August 7, 2020)

1. During the 1700 and 1800s, quarantined ships were asked to anchor where?
   A. Off Half Tide Rocks
   B. Near Plum Island Point
   C. Off Black Rocks
   D. In Salisbury
2. The original entrance to Oak Hill Cemetery was on State Street, where a brick "what" to hold caskets over the winter months for later burial is still located and used.
   A. Tomb Keeper
   B. Receiving Tomb
   C. Casket Holder
   D. Pre-Burial Building
3. Speaking of Oak Hill, its main entrance boasts a Concord granite gateway, adorned with iron gates, and a beautiful inscription that reads, "Until the Day Breaks and the Shadows Flee Away," which was written by whom?
   A. John S. Tuppin
   B. John S. Toppans
   C. John S. Tippler
   D. John S. Tappan
4. On his last voyage, Captain Francis B. Todd (1805-1841), a Newburyport native, stopped in Havana, Cuba, where he contracted yellow fever and died. His body was placed in a mahogany coffin, and then into a second container filled with what?
   A. Formaldehyde
   B. Rum
   C. Isopropyl
   D. Seawater
5. Albert C. Titcomb (1831-1899), gold miner for two years, a shipper in South America, jeweler, Newburyport City Council member and named interim mayor upon the death of William H. Huse, lived on High Street in what current day location?
   A. Brigham Manor Nursing Home (#77)
   B. The Museum of Old Newbury (#98)
   C. The Natural Grocer (#334)
   D. Home for Aged Men (#361)
6. Newbury's First Church divided in 1695, creating the Second Church. In 1726, the Third Church was established. In 1764, where was the Third Church of Newbury located?
   A. Newbury
   B. West Newbury
   C. Newburyport
   D. Plum Island
7. Around 1900, Newburyport's only castle was named:
   A. Dexter's Castle
   B. Maudsley's Castle
   C. Moseley's Castle
   D. Moulton's Castle
8. The Dalton House, located at 95 State Street, was built in 1746. Noted guests have included George Washington and Marquis de Lafayette, to name two. It boasts what in its basement?
   A. Private graves of Dalton family members.
   B. Candlepin bowling lanes.
   C. Faux windows, as well as extra antique interior molding and window sashes.
   D. A wine cellar that extends under State Street.