

Catholic Trivia 8-15-25 Answers:

1. The “seal” of the Sacrament of Penance refers to the fact that a priest is bound by total confidentiality regarding anything that a person confesses. Under no circumstance can the priest reveal the content of a particular person’s confession.
2. Holy Communion for the dying is referred to as Viaticum (literally, on the way with you).
3. Jesus raised his friend Lazarus from the dead.
4. The movement toward unity among Christians is called ecumenism.
5. The four major writing prophets are: Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel and Daniel. They are called major because the books attributed to them are longer than the other 12 books by prophets.
