

Catholic Trivia 1-15 Answers:

1. The four major basilicas are St. Peter's (in Vatican City), St. John Lateran, St. Mary Major, St. Paul Outside the Walls.
2. The only two gospels that contain the Lord's Prayer are: Matthew's gospel during the Sermon on the Mount (Matt 6:9 ff.) and in the gospel of Luke (11:2 ff.)
3. Actually, no. The CJM is classified in church law as a Society of Apostolic Life (SAL). Members of an SAL unite around a common apostolic purpose, live together in community and follow the evangelical counsels but do not profess the vows common to Religious Life.
4. The CCC is completely silent about what was traditionally called limbo. A document from the International Theological Commission refers to limbo as a "theory" that was used for some time in the Church. However, it was never a dogmatic teaching. Today, the Catechism teaches that "there is a way of salvation for children who have died without Baptism." We entrust them to the merciful love of God.
5. The virtue of fortitude is also called courage or might. The Catechism tells us that it "ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of the good. It strengthens the resolve to resist temptations and to overcome obstacles in the moral life. The virtue of fortitude enables one to conquer fear, even fear of death, and to face trials and persecutions. It disposes one even to renounce and sacrifice his life in defense of a just cause." [CCC 1808]
