1. Pope St. Paul VI wrote Evangelii Nuntiandi in 1975
2. Pope St. John Paul II wrote Evangelium Vitae in 1995 in which he taught that human life is a sacred and inviolable gift from God, and therefore, society must respect, protect, and promote it at every stage of life.
3. Pope Benedict XVI wrote a three-book series on Jesus of Nazareth.
4. Laudato 'si is the encyclical of Pope Francis on our obligation to care for the earth, our common home.
5. Love for the poor is a hallmark of faith, Pope Leo XIV says in his first exhortation which was published earlier this month. In his first major document, the pope says Scripture and tradition clearly show that "God has a special place in his heart" for the poor and oppressed, and he asks his church "to make a decisive and radical choice in favor of the weakest."
