

Catholic Trivia 4-25-25 Answers:

1. Michael Joncas wrote “On Eagles Wings.”
2. Latin is still the official language of the Catholic Church.
3. The Catechism of the Catholic Church was written in French. This remains the original language from which all translations of the Catechism are made.
4. The four women who have been declared to be Doctors of the Church are St. Teresa of Avila, St. Hildegard of Bingen, St. Therese of Lisieux and St. Catherine of Sienna.
5. The Catholic Church recognizes three archangels by name in the Bible: Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael. While the Bible mentions angels in general, only these three are explicitly named and given specific roles.