

Catholic Trivia 6-5 Answers:

1. St. John Eudes, canonized on May 31, 1925
2. St. Kateri Tekakwitha, also called Lily of the Mohawks
3. Ordinary Time or the Season of the Year (such as 10th Sunday in Ordinary Time or 10th Sunday of the Year)
4. Pope Francis
5. The smoke of burning incense is interpreted by both Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox churches as a symbol of the prayers of the faithful rising to heaven. Recall the words of Psalm 141: "Let my prayer be incense before you; my uplifted hands an evening offering."
