18th Annual Supplies For Success

Tuesday, August 20 & Wednesday, August 21, 2019
Two shifts per day: 10:30 am - 1:00 pm and 12:30 pm - 3:00 pm

Location:

Sid Jacobson Jewish Community Center, 300 Forest Drive, Greenvale, New York

UJA-Federation is working to ensure that disadvantaged children on Long Island and metro New York return to school with the tools they need to succeed. Last year, we provided filled backpacks to more than 15,000 disadvantaged children through UJA-Federation nonprofit partners, as well as schools and other local organizations.

Let's help even more this year.

Overview and Introduction
Adult Bar/Bat Mitzvah Program

Geared for Jewish adults in our Temple family who have not already become Bar or Bat Mitzvah, we will focus on learning the Hebrew alphabet and Hebrew reading. Each adult Bar or Bat Mitzvah will work towards reading/chanting from the scroll of Torah and chanting the traditional Aliyah blessings. The service will be held on a Friday evening during Shabbat worship next year for all participants.

Contact Rabbi for additional info at RabbiBHK@tbdcommack.org.

Little Scholars Mommy and Me is a program for 13m-36m old children.

It is an educational and developmental milestone based curriculum that helps children love learning and prepare them for nursery and pre-school.

Each week is new and fun and consists of:

- book of the week
- circle time
- art time
- exploratory play
- music and movement
- playground time (weather pending)
