Values are important beliefs or ideals one has about what is good or bad, desirable or undesirable. Using the "Fruit of the Spirit" as a guide, Midwest Food Bank has refined our values.

Estate planning can include Midwest Food Bank

Are you interested in making a long-term investment in the Midwest Food Bank mission? Please consider including Midwest Food Bank in your estate planning. Our mission to share the love of Christ by alleviating hunger and malnutrition throughout the world is only possible through the generous donations of people like you. Discover the blessing of investing in a ministry helping those in need.

To discuss ways you can invest, contact Jada Hoerr, MFB's Development and Relations Director, at 309-370-0171 or jhoerr@midwestfoodbank.org

"Store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal" - Mathew 6:20

How you can help

Pray. We are thankful for any and all prayers offered on behalf of this ministry. We hope to show the love of Christ in our actions, and be good stewards of the donations given.

Donate. If you would like to help us provide for those suffering from food insecurity, please consider making a financial donation. Over 99% of the funds we receive go to programs and services that feed the hungry.

Volunteer. There are many ways you can bring hope to those in need. Contact us to learn about the opportunities at MFB Georgia. Visit our website and fill out a volunteer interest form here.
