Shape the Future of Indy Shop Training

Calling All Indianapolis Area Shop Owners!

Are you thinking about bringing training to your shop this fall? Join us for a free, one-hour virtual session designed exclusively for automotive repair shop owners in the Indianapolis area.

This is your chance to:

- Share what kind of training your team really needs — from technical skills to service advisor and shop management development
- Hear what other local shop owners are focusing on
- Help shape Indianapolis-area training offerings that actually work for your team and your schedule

Whether you're looking to upskill your techs, grow your management team, or streamline service processes, this is a collaborative conversation to help you plan ahead — and get the support you need.

No presentations. No sales pitch. Just a focused discussion designed to bring Indianapolis area training opportunities that work for everyone.
