NO MITZVOT IN THIS PARSHA?

Although none of the Taryag (613) mitzvot are counted from Vayera, there are many mitzvah-lessons to be found in the Parsha. Many of the details of the Mitzvah of Hachnasat Orchim (hospitality), considered part of the mitzvah of G'milut Chasadim, are derived from the behavior of Avraham Avinu. Similarly, Bikur Cholim, (visiting the sick), is also a part of G'milut Chasadim, as well as being part of the mitzvah to emulate Hashem.

Hashem decides to pay a visit to Avraham. This teaches us the importance of the Mitzvah of Bikur Cholim, (visiting the sick). He sees how Avraham yearns for guests, so He sends three Malachim (angels) in shepherd clothing walking down the road. Avraham is so excited to see guests that he interrupts his conversation with Hashem and runs out to greet them. Avraham invites the strangers to his tent for a meal. He quickly sends one of his men to fetch water to wash their feet. While they are resting under a tree, Avraham makes dinner arrangements. That's Sarah's department & you can be certain that she's as enthusiastic as her husband: The guests are fed a delicious meal. We should all strive to be as amazing at Hachnasat Orchim as Avraham & Sarah. Don't think of Hachnasat Orchim as a burden, but as a chance to do an incredible altruistic Mitzvah.

“Quote of the Week”

“We are human beings. We are sometimes sad. And sometimes we are 100% right to be sad. But the most important thing is that even when you are sad, don't stop being happy...”

-Rabbi Shlomo Carlebach

DID YOU KNOW.....

Did you know that after the destruction of the Second Temple (Beit Hamikdash) in 70 CE Emperor Vespasian issued a brand new tax called the Jews' Tax? Now, this wasn't a tax just on the survivors of the Jewish rebellion in Judea, it was a tax placed on ANY Jew in the whole Roman Empire as punishment for the rebellion, even Jews who had never even been to Israel! While obviously unfair, this does show how when tragedy strikes Klal Yisrael it affects us all- in this case literally- whether we are directly a part of the tragedy or not.

MIDDLE RIDDLE

Yoni is away this Shabbat, so the riddle is just for fun this week ☺

The Midrash says to S'dom I once went
And was nearly robbed of every cent
A judge said to pay the robber for making him bleed
So I hit the judge and had him pay for the deed

Last Week-

Worshipping Idols? Avram knew that was very dumb But there used to be lots of idols- and then some
The followers of this one in the Torah were extra bad They would sacrifice their kids - and were truly mad!

Altruism- Al·tru·ism

(ăl' trōō- īz' ām) n.

1. Unselfish concern for the welfare of others; selflessness.
2. Zoology- behavior by an animal that is not beneficial to or may be harmful to itself but that benefits others of its species.
