SUPER WRITING!

Hashem commands Moshe to call Yehoshua to take over as leader of Am Yisrael. Moshe comes up with an idea: "How about if Yehoshua becomes the new leader and I live as a mere student of his!" When Yehoshua comes into Moshe's tent, the cloud of glory descends between them. When the cloud lifts, Moshe knows that Yehoshua has received a message from Hashem. Moshe eagerly asks "So, what does Hashem have to say to you?" But Yehoshua replies, "It's a secret between Hashem and me."

On this last day of Moshe's life Hashem dictates the entire Torah from beginning to end. Moshe's pen miraculously flows at great speed. This Sefer Torah is given to Shevet (Tribe) Levi. All future Sifrei Torah will be copied from this one. This irks the other tribes. The elders of each Shevet argue: "All Jews were given the Torah equally at Har Sinai. Why should Levi have the Torah in their court?"

For once, Moshe is happy to hear an argument coming from the Bnai Yisrael. This proves that all of Bnai Yisrael loves the Torah. Right away, Moshe whips out a feather and with G-d speed (literally), Moshe knocks out twelve more Sifrei Torah - one for each Shevet. The original Sefer Torah is put away in the Aron (Ark) with the Luchot (tablets).

DID YOU KNOW.....

Did you know there is archaeological evidence of Jews living in Israel dating back to the 13th Century BCE?! This is the 13th century Merneptah Stele- it documents the exaggerated accomplishments of Pharaoh Merneptah- who claims to have defeated the residents of Western Israel (in Ashkelon and Gezer).

The Israelites left Egypt about a century before Merneptah lived, and this historic finding gives solid evidence of the events of the Exodus being true.
