

19TH ANNUAL NEW JERSEY JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL MARCH 27–APRIL 7, 2019

TRAVELOGUE TEL AVIV • THE UNORTHODOX

Saturday, March 30, 9:00PM / Maurice Levin Theater, JCC MetroWest, West Orange

DOUBLE FEATURE

TRAVELOGUE TEL AVIV

Director: Samuel Patthey
Switzerland / 2017
No Dialogue, 6 min

A young art student from Switzerland arrives for six months in Tel Aviv, documenting his experiences in an animated journal. His sensitive drawings capture not only the local color and characters, but the city's personality and ever-changing atmosphere

THE UNORTHODOX

Director: Eliran Malka
Israel / 2018
Hebrew, 94 min

Inspired by the formation story of Israel's Shas party, this "comic drama" covers events that reshaped Israeli society and continue to resonate today. It marks a return to the screen for lead actor Shuli Rand—star of Ushpizin—who plays Yaakov Cohen, a man who seeks change and ends up transforming an entire country.
