The Mental Health Association in New Jersey is pleased to announce the appointment of Lei Chen to its Board of Trustees

Ms. Chen is a seasoned financial services executive and advisor with a strong history of building high-performing teams and leading transformative initiatives. She previously served as a Managing Director at JPMorgan Chase and Goldman Sachs, and held senior leadership roles at American Express, where she led fraud and credit risk strategy and supported the development of innovative financial products.

Currently, Ms. Chen advises financial services and fintech companies on product strategy, growth, and risk management. She also serves on the board of Purple Swans, a Morristown New Jersey–based nonprofit organization focused on cultural exchange and community impact. Purple Swans Corporation partners with MHANJ via live performances to reduce stigma and increase access to mental health services.

"We are thrilled to welcome Lei Chen to our Board of Trustees," said Carolyn Beauchamp, MSW, MHANJ's President and CEO. "Lei has been a valued partner to MHANJ over the past several years, serving as a key liaison in our collaboration with Purple Swans on mental health awareness and training initiatives. Her insight, leadership, and commitment to advancing mental health will be instrumental as we continue to expand our reach and impact."

About the Mental Health Association in New Jersey
Headquartered in Springfield, MHANJ is a statewide nonprofit organization dedicated to helping individuals achieve victory over mental illness and substance use disorders through advocacy, education, training, and services. For more information, please visit https://www.mhanj.org