The Mental Health Association in New Jersey (MHANJ) is pleased to announce the appointment of Yannick Ladson, EdD, LPC, to its Board of Trustees

The Mental Health Association in New Jersey (MHANJ) is pleased to announce the appointment of Yannick Ladson, EdD, LPC, to its Board of Trustees. With more than 20 years of experience in higher education, mental health counseling, student success, and community advocacy, Dr. Ladson currently serves as the Campus Affairs Officer at Bloomfield College of Montclair State University. She has held various leadership positions in higher education, including Dean of Student Success and Director of the Counseling & Wellness Center at Mercer County Community College, as well as faculty counseling positions at the Community College of Philadelphia and Northern Virginia Community College.

Dr. Ladson has developed programs and cross-institutional partnerships focused on student success, supported first-generation college students, and served on behavioral intervention teams. A Licensed Professional Counselor in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, she also operates a private practice in Voorhees, New Jersey.

Dr. Ladson is a proud and active member of MHANJ's Program Advisory Committee and Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. She is deeply committed to advancing mental health and strengthening communities.

"We are happy to welcome Yannick to our Board. She brings a wealth of experience in mental health, education and community leadership, along with a deep commitment to helping people and strengthening the systems that support them," stated Carolyn Beauchamp, MHANJ's President and CEO.

About the Mental Health Association in New Jersey
Headquartered in Springfield, MHANJ is a statewide nonprofit organization dedicated to helping individuals achieve victory over mental illness and substance use disorders through advocacy, education, training, and services. For more information, visit www.mhanj.org.