

Please return to Beth Pickus by Monday, September, 19, 2017
to assure book delivery for advance reading.

Executive Functioning Parent “Book Club”

As part of this year’s focus on best practices for addressing Executive Functioning,
Cove School will host
noted clinician and author in this field,
Dr. Peg Dawson,
At our January, 2017 Parent Education Event

Peg Dawson is a respected psychologist who has written extensively on the science and practical ways to address executive functioning difficulties in children and adults.

In support of Dr. Dawson’s presentation, please join us in a series of “book club” meetings to discuss her books:
Smart but Scattered and Smart but Scattered Teen
And to learn about the impact of EF on our students.

Where? Cove School Media Ctr. When? 6:30 to 7:30pm

- Monday, September 26, 2016: Smart but Scattered, “Part I-What Makes Your Child /Teen Smart but Scattered.”
- Monday, November 7, 2016: Smart but Scattered, “Part II-Laying a Foundation That Can Help.”
- Thursday, January 12, 2017: Peg Dawson meets directly with parents.
- Monday, February 13, 2017: Smart but Scattered, “Part III-Putting it All Together.”

I plan to attend these EF meetings: _____
(Name)

Enclosed is: (circle) $10.00 for: Smart but Scattered (focused on children through 13)
OR $15.00 for Smart but Scattered Teen (focused on adolescents 14-19).

PLEASE NOTE: THESE BOOKS ARE ALSO AVAILABLE ON AUDIOBOOKS AND CD.
QUESTIONS? Contact Donna Torf: dtorf@coveschool.org