

The Learning Disabilities Association of Illinois is a not-for-profit organization of all individuals who are committed to the education and welfare of persons with learning and attention disabilities.

What does LDA/IL do for you?

Here are some of the activities of our volunteer organization which benefit the learning disabled in Illinois:

- Provides monitoring and advises on special education legislation at the federal and state levels.
- Monitors and advises the Illinois State Board of Education on issues dealing with students with learning disabilities.
- Provides advocacy information and support to parents, learning disabled individuals and professionals.
- Provides scholarships for post-secondary education for students with learning disabilities.
- Provides and support workshops and mini-conferences.
- Publishes a quarterly newsletter, Scope. All members receive the national e-newsletter, LDA Today, and some local chapters also publish a newsletter.
- Increases public awareness of learning disabilities throughout Illinois.
- Provides access to a large lending library of DVDs.
- Through bequest from family of Dr. Janet Lerner, provides membership scholarships for parents of students with learning disabilities and for adults with learning disabilities.
