“With MCE, we recognized very early on that it wasn’t an off-the-shelf program... I’ve enjoyed working with the staff and instructors of the program and customizing it to meet our City of Hamilton needs, to align it with our current corporate training and development initiatives, and using real life City of Hamilton scenarios in the projects and exercises.”

Marty Hazell, Executive Leadership Associate,
Planning and Economic Development,

Ask us about:

Finance for the Non-Financial Manager

This course will provide participants with the skills and knowledge necessary to demonstrate an understanding of financial concepts, creating and analyzing budgets, interpreting financial tools and more. Designed for managers with little or no finance experience.

Building Relationships with Council

This course will help participants understand the roles and responsibilities of municipal council. Participants will learn how to build relationships with council members, advocating for the member of the public. Participants will work on case studies and activities to gain respect from councillors.

Communicating with the Media

This course will help participants understand and communicate with the media. Media's role in society is constantly changing, and now more than ever, it's important to understand what news is, how to work with journalists, preparing for interviews and more.

Indigenous Culture Training

This course will educate participants on Indigenous Culture, worldviews and knowledge. Strategies include cultural training and experiential learning opportunities to help build an understanding of shared histories, as well as provide opportunities for sharing and celebrating cultural diversity.

Workplace Diversity and Inclusion Training

This course will provide participants with the skills to deal with challenges that result from diversity while creating an inclusive working environment for your organization to better support all employees. MCE specializes in creating a fun, experiential, safe and non-judgmental learning environment.

AVID Media Certification

MCE offers two AVID Media Certifications: AVID Media Composer and AVID Pro Tools. In these 5 day certifications, participants will gain a fundamental understanding of the core skills and competencies needed to use this technology. Participants can also earn credits and begin their path towards a more advanced certification.
