A hilarious, coming-of-age musical about discovering that “cool” is sometimes where we least expect it. With an unforgettable rock score from Tony Award-winning composer Jason Robert Brown, (Parade, The Last Five Years, Bridges of Madison County) 13 is a musical about fitting in – and standing out! Evan Goldman is plucked from his fast paced, preteen New York City life and plopped into a sleepy Indiana town following his parents’ divorce. Surrounded by an array of simpleminded middle school students, he needs to establish his place in the popularity pecking order. Can he situate himself on a comfortable link of the food chain or will he dangle at the end with the outcasts?! Comprised of a precocious cast, no character in 13 is older than the show’s title. Although the cast is comprised entirely of teenagers, the stories that come to life are ageless, the emotions they explore timeless, and the laughter and the memories they provide priceless.

If you would like to come for a discounted rate of $15.00 on Saturday, December 10, at 8:00 p.m., please contact Norma Whitmyre at nwhitmyre@torahacademy.org. Tickets for other performances can be purchased by calling the JCC at 614.231.2731 or by visiting the website at www.jccgalleryplayers.org.
