

Wendy Amsellem to speak to High School Girls on Sunday, March 11 at 3 pm at the Adler Home.

Wendy Amsellem is a faculty member at Yeshivat Maharat and at Drisha Institute. She also teaches at Pardes and at Yeshivat Chovevei Torah. Wendy is an alumna of the Drisha Scholar's Circle and she has a BA in History and Literature from Harvard University. She is an editor of The Lehrhaus (thelehrhaus.com) and lectures widely

Here is a brief description of her talk topic.

Beruriah: Finding Your Place

Beruriah is the only female scholar mentioned by name in the Talmud. We will study the texts in which she appears and consider the challenges faced by women Torah scholars – both in Beruriah's time and today.
