COLTON D. HARPER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Eastern Contractors Association, Inc. has scholarships available for the 2019-2020 academic year to sons and daughters of management employees who are working for ECA member firms. For the first time, the scholarship is now also open to management employees themselves.

Management employees include non-field/craft workers, such as administrative staff, interns, estimators, project managers, senior staff, etc.

Applicants must be entering or enrolled in a construction-related curriculum as full-time students at an accredited two- or four-year college or university. Fields of study include, but are not limited to: construction technology, project management, architecture, engineering, and project/construction management.

Scholarship winners will be determined by the Eastern Contractors Association, Inc.'s Executive Committee.

For a full list of ECA member firms, go to: www.ecainc.org/members

INSTRUCTIONS:

Applications for the Colton D. Harper Memorial Scholarship MUST be filed by July 1, 2019, together with a complete copy of your high school transcript (through the completion of your Senior year), and the indication of results of any college entrance exams which you have taken. If you are already enrolled in college, submit a college transcript of ALL college courses taken to date (including Spring 2019 courses).

Also, applicants must submit a written essay (no more than 600 words) on “why you are interested in the construction industry as a career.”

(PLEASE NOTE: High school and college transcripts do not need to be “official” transcripts, a copy will be fine.)
