Calling all parents or soon-to-be parents of a newborn

Rubin Visiting Moms® is a FREE, award-winning, home visiting program to support parents of newborns. Whether a first baby or a new baby in the household, our trained and supervised volunteers visit parents weekly for a minimum of six weeks or as long as the parent is interested, until the baby's first birthday.

Experienced parent volunteers who support & accompany you while getting to know your new baby

Talk through normal feelings, such as exhilaration, confusion, excitement, stress

Open to all parents of newborns
