

Name: Jennifer Hall

Title: Acting Library Coordinator, Campion College

Born and lived: Born in Regina.

Early Life: I grew up in Dysart, a small farming community northeast of Regina. After graduating from high school in Dysart, I attended the University of Saskatchewan where I obtained B.Sc. and M.Sc. degrees in palaeobiology.

Professional career and activities: Before beginning my library career, I held positions at the Royal Saskatchewan Museum, The Saskatchewan Science Centre, and Canadian Blood Services. I began working at the University of Regina Library as a Reference Assistant in 2004. In December of 2016, I began a term position as the Library Coordinator at Campion College.

Family: Married to Burnie Hall. Three sons: Ethan (10), Seamus (3), and Archer (2).

In my spare time: I read (of course!), crochet, and run after two very active toddlers.

Favorite books: The Blue Castle by L. M. Montgomery, Wonderful Life by Stephen Jay Gould, and Persuasion by Jane Austen

I'm currently reading: Neurotribes: The Legacy of Autism and How to Think Smarter About People Who Think Differently by Steve Silberman

Most memorable career achievement: Having an obscure article about fossil marsupials published in an academic journal.

Long-term career goals: Continuing my education, possibly pursuing a MLIS degree.
