

Canada 150 funding deadline extended to October 21

Canadian Heritage's Canada 150 Fund will be accepting applications for projects requesting $50,000 or less until Friday October 21, 2016, so now is the time to apply. Click here for more information.

- Canada 150 Fund is designed to create opportunities for Canadians to participate in local, regional, and national celebrations that contribute to building a sense of pride and attachment to Canada. Projects and activities should be new and specifically designed to celebrate the 150th anniversary of Confederation. For an application kit or further information, please email

PCH.rpn-pnr.PCH@canada.ca.

- The Celebrate Canada program is designed to offer support for Canada Day celebrations in 2017 (and three specific special days prior to Canada Day) to communities and organizations across the country. Funding amounts are dependent upon the size of the activity being planned to help celebrate Canada Day and mark the nation's 150th anniversary.

- Community Foundations of Canada is offering funding to municipalities and small communities for Canada 150 projects.
