Emerging writers based anywhere in Saskatchewan are invited to apply to CARFAC SASK's 2024-2025 Art Writing Mentorship program with mentoring writers Emily Riddle (Edmonton) and Nic Wilson (Regina). The program aims to foster critical art dialogues in, for, and coming out of Saskatchewan and will run from November 1, 2024 through May 31, 2025 with (2) mentees working remotely with each mentor towards specific mentee-led art writing goals and outcomes.

CARFAC SASK is thrilled that through partnership with Indigenous Curatorial Collective/ Collectif des commissaires autochtones (ICCA), Indigenous and BIPOC mentee participants in CARFAC SASK's Art Writing Mentorship program will have paid opportunities to publish writing about Indigenous art through ICCA's Digital Publishing Program Please prioritize your interest in this specific opportunity as part of your application, as applicable.

Emily Riddle
