Hello! Happy Fall! The Education Institute and the Ontario Library Association have a number of training opportunities for all library staff.

Upcoming Webinars:

How to Demonstrate the Impact of Technology Services Offered in Public Libraries
Date & Time: Thursday, December 2 at 12-1 p.m. ET
Registration Link
Speakers: Sepideh Mckensy & Betsey Suchanic
Fee: Members: $0/Non-Members: $55

Description:
In this webinar, learn the challenges facing public libraries in activating data within their libraries, steps to make data-informed strategic decisions and how to harness the benefits of the Bridge Technology Assessment Toolkit and the Edge Assessment Platform.

Time Management at Work: Intentionality Amid the Chaos
Date & Time: Thursday, December 9 at 12-1:30 p.m. ET
Registration Link
Speakers: Meg Ecclestone
Fee: Members: $45/Non-Members: $55

Webinar Description: Join us to discuss strategies and techniques for improving how to manage our inboxes, our tasks, and our time at work. Learn about practices like time blocking, task batching, and e-mail workflows to help bring a greater sense of intentionality - and maybe even a bit more calm - to your work life. There are hands-on portions to this workshop. Please bring some paper and a pen, and ensure you've got access to your work calendar for this session.