

Join us in Saskatoon from June 6-8 at Station 20 West to attend presentations from: Alcuin award winner and head of Design and Production at the University of Alberta Press, Alan Brownoff; rights and sales specialist, Catherine Mitchell; award-winning publisher of graphic novels and Kickstarter Thought-Leader, Hope Nicholson; and, Director of Publishing at the Gabriel Dumont Institute, Karon Schmon.

With updates from: Donovan Bergman of Friesens, Courtney Bates-Hardy of the Saskatchewan Book Awards, Grant McConnell and Katherine Lawrence of Access Copyright, Deborah Nelson (CEO) of eBound, and Karen Armstrong and Lauren Warner of the Saskatoon Public Library.

For the stakeholders' dinner, we'll enjoy a delicious meal at the University of Saskatchewan Faculty Club and then roam through Ancient civilization at the Museum of Antiquities.

This is a sneak peek. The full program schedule and registration forms can be accessed at <https://www.skbooks.com/conference/>.
