Graduate Spotlight:

Adriana Griffin

Advocating for justice is nothing new for Adriana Griffin. Her path to becoming a Rattler for Justice began at a young age, making a difference in the Orlando community.

“I have always been committed to promoting justice and equality," said Griffin, a 2026 graduate. “In my youth I was recognized by the Orlando Mayor's Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission and awarded the Youth MLK Humanitarian Award."

As a law student, Griffin continued engaging with the community and supporting fellow students.

“I have continuously advocated for community outreach and dedicated my time towards providing future students with better foundations for success," said Griffin. “In my second year, I was honored to be nominated and chosen by faculty to serve as FAMU Law's 2L Representative with the National Bar Institute. I further served as a chairman on the Student Bar Association's (SBA) Tutoring and Mentoring Committee, as well as the Academic and Curriculum committee."

During her time in law school, Griffin also strengthened her skills through serving as a research assistant; a teaching assistant; and vice president of the Real Property Probate and Trust Law Society.

Griffin is looking forward to the next step along her journey.

“I have always been committed to justice and I am excited to this pursuit of justice as an Assistant State Attorney in the Ninth Judicial Circuit in the fall," said Griffin.
