

Press Release - SONG FEST II

When: Thursday November 21, 6 PM – 10 PM

Where: Corsicana Event Center, 1315 S. 7 St. (S. Bus. I 45)

What: In support of Hull Creative Arts Foundation creative arts scholarships for local students

INSERT ATTACHED HEADER HERE – pictures of all performing

Four Local singing favorites will hold a concert benefitting the Hull Creative Arts Foundation

SONG FEST II features some of the best local performers in our community!!

Song FEST II is hosted by Carey Dean from 106.9 The Ranch.

Local favorites: Bryon Haynie, Ira Bradford, Shane Holcomb and Bryan Smith have combined their talents to bring to the stage a night of wonderful music and entertainment at an event you will never forget. Also a special guest performance by the Mildred High School Jazz Ensemble from 6 to 7 PM.

The Taco Station Truck will provide wonderful Mexican food starting at 5:30. Come early and enjoy a great meal. Need a beverage? Taco Station will have a great selection of adult and not so adult beverages!! A portion of all Taco Station sales will go toward scholarships. Sorry no food or beverages allowed in.

Your donation online of $ 18 will get you in!! www.tinyurl.com/hullcreativearts

Tickets at the door $ 20

Hull Creative Arts Foundation provides college scholarships in the creative arts and local theater training scholarships for the students of Navarro County. HCAF promotes the value of the creative arts and also hosts other committees and scholarships in the community under our nonprofit banner.

Like or follow “Hull Creative Arts” on Facebook to donate or for more information. For complete information on HCAF, check out our web site. <http://www.hullcreativearts.com/>

Contact: Frank Hull, Chairman at hullcreativearts@yahoo.com for information or to help in our mission.