July 9th, 2023

Dear respected member of Chicago's Italian American Community,

I am writing today to keep you informed of a situation involving disparaging remarks made by Chicago 33rd Ward Alderwoman Rossana Rodriguez-Sanchez. It has been all over the press, so I am relatively sure you are already aware of her tweet of June 28 posting a poll asking, "What is the best way to celebrate Italian heritage in Chicago?" She goes on to give the choices: A statue of Italian Ice; A statue of Columbus, A statue of a Bialetti espresso pot, and write your own choices-provoking her followers to submit insulting suggestions including a cannoli statue, a beef juice fountain and a statue of Al Capone eating spaghetti.

The JCCIA immediately issued a press release calling out the Alderwoman and her racist, disrespectful, and xenophobic remarks.

Next, we sent a letter to Mayor Johnson directly and are currently working very closely with his senior staff to ensure this matter is handled as expeditiously as possible.

We have also been working with State Legislators and a diverse group of members of the Chicago City Council who share our outrage about their "esteemed" colleague. It has proven to me that we have friends in all communities who support us: Latin American, African American, Asian American and more.

We strongly suggest that you urge your members and friends to act upon this unacceptable behavior of this ironic Chairperson of the Chicago Health and Human Relations Committee, the very group to address racial and ethnic inequities.

You can let your sentiments be known by sending letters directly to her:

Email: rossana@33rdward.org AND Rossana.rodriguezsanchez@cityofchicago.org

Call her office: 773.840.7880

Visit or write her office: 4747 N. Sawyer Ave., Chicago 60625

To file a complaint:

City of Chicago Inspector General: 773.478.7799 740 N. Sedgewick St., Suite 200 Chicago 60654

You can also file a complaint by calling 311

Chicago Board of Ethics-Legislative Inspector General: 312.744.9660

The next wave of action is about to ensue. I will keep you abreast of our progress!

We commend the Italian American Human Relations Foundation, The National Italian American Foundation and the other organizations and individuals who have already registered their complaints. We must continue to unify and show strength in numbers. Please let our office know of your actions...we want to support YOU!

BASTA! Is our message...UNITY is our strength!

Sincerely,

Ron Onesti, President, JCCIA
