Top Things You Likely Did Not Know About

Megan Sieling

Member Services Manager

1. She loves to garden. She starts veggies and flowers from seed under grow lights inside in the late winter. She visits plant nurseries for fun.
2. She met her husband Kirk in college at Texas Tech University. She was the winning bidder for a Valentine's Day date with him at an auction on Greek circle. She is an Alpha Delta Pi.
3. She will always stop to pick up or help a stray animal. She even made Kirk stop to pick up a stray dog on their first date!
4. She has three boys: Truitt (15), Parker (13), and Holden (8). They play soccer, basketball, run cross country.
5. She grew up in North Texas and relocated to the Nashville, TN area in 2021. She will always be a Texan.
6. She has a leopard gecko named Mojo. She also has a 12-year-old cat named Tigger and an 8-month-old kitten named Olive. They don't get along but hopefully will be best friends one day!
7. She and her husband love listening to live music and typically attend several concerts a year.

8. She has a master's in journalism from The University of North Texas.
9. She is the person in her friend group that organizes all the trips and get togethers.
10. Megan and her family love to travel, camp, and hike. Kirk asked her to marry him after a hike up Pike's Peak in Colorado.
