Powerful Connections, Then and Now
Remembering Stories, Inspiring Action

Rev. Dr. Phyllis Meighen and Rev. Dr. Roxanne WhiteLight, Spiritual Guides
Dr. Lana Ka'opua, Facilitator and Cultural History Resource
Kahu Richard Miller, Kalaupapa Sponsor and Interpretive Guide

We'll discover Kalaupapa—its history, culture, people, and the 'aina—as we carry out God's call to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with our God (Micah 6:8).

We'll learn the personal stories of people who lived in exile with Hansen's Disease and reflect on how their stories speak to us today.

We'll notice how Kalaupapa speaks to our own spiritual journey and how God may be calling us to healing or to missions of justice and compassion.

We'll volunteer to help preserve Kalaupapa's heritage by cleaning or painting historic buildings, caring for the grounds, tending cemeteries, and performing other tasks.

We'll also enjoy pristine beaches, fellowship with stories and music, and worship with the people of Kalaupapa.
