

Huli ka lima i lalo

Turning our minds, hearts, and hands
to the ‘āina

Schedule:

- Spring Training, April 5, 2025
- Virtual Summer Speaker Series

Dr. Kamanamaikalani Beamer, May 24

“Waiwai: Water and the Future of Hawai‘i”

Dr. Beamer is a full professor at the University of Hawai‘i-Mānoa with a dual appointment in the School of Hawaiian Knowledge and Richardson School of Law.

Reverend Rachel Taber-Hamilton, July 26

Rev. Taber-Hamilton is a Shackan First Nation person and an Episcopal priest. She has served in the Diocese of Olympia for 23 years and was elected vice president of the House of Deputies at the 2022 General Convention.

Robin Wall Kimmerer, August 2

“What Does the Earth Ask of Us?”

Zoom pre-recorded talk with live Q & A

Robin Wall Kimmerer is a botanist and member of the Potawatomi Nation. She is author of Braiding Sweetgrass: Indigenous Wisdom, Scientific Knowledge and the Teachings of Plants.

- Education Day Volunteer Event
October 24, 2025

All attendees are invited to volunteer at different mālama 'āina sites around O'ahu. Reppun Farm will be one of these sites, among others. For those who are not comfortable standing for long periods or doing physical work in hot weather, there will be an alternative volunteer and educational event at 'Iolani. We will learn by doing, by turning our hearts, minds, and hands to the 'āina!

For registration information, Zoom links, and updated information about our volunteer sites and all of these events, use this QR code or visit:

www.episcopalhawaii.org/huli

* Huli is a year-long emphasis on creation care made possible by a Creation Care grant from The Episcopal Church. It is a collaborative effort of Ho'imi Pono, the Native Hawaiian Ministry Committee, and Kahuaola (formerly the Creation Care and Environmental Justice Task Force). ****