

THE ART OF NARCISSUS

The Art of Narcissus

Learn the Chinese art of carving a narcissus bulb, and create a traditional symbol to welcome in the Lunar New Year. Mr. Gilman Hu has taught the art and cultivation for many years and passes on this tradition in this annual workshop. Classes available for Beginning, Returning, and Advanced Students.

Workshop: Saturdays, 8:30am – 11:30am
Jan. 13, 20, 27, Feb. 3, 2018.

Exhibition: February Feb 10 - 11, 2018 (Saturday and Sunday) Display of students' works

Cost: $45 – Beginning Students
$35 – Returning Students
$25 – Advanced Students

A limited number of bulbs and carving knives will be available for purchase.

Location: St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Parish Hall
1317 Queen Emma St., Honolulu
Phone 533-1943

Registration required, please register by Dec 15, 2017.

For more information email: stpetershonolulu@gmail.com.