

AAPI ADOPTEE RESOURCES

- Recent Time article by Nicole Chung (adoptee author of All You Can Ever Know) “My White Adoptive Parents Struggled to See Me as Korean. Would They Have Understood My Anger at the Rise in Anti-Asian Violence?”
- AdopteeBridge: “Event: OurHistory Discussion Group When: April 11th at 3:00pm Central ~ Come together to discuss, find community, and support from other transracial adoptees at OurHistory Discussion Group. This is a monthly discussion group that meets via Zoom. We understand this group is especially important in light of recent events. If you would like to attend future discussion groups, please contact info@adopteebridge.org”
- Also-Known-As: The mission of Also-Known-As, Inc. is to empower the voice of adult international adoptees, build cultural bridges, transform perceptions of race, and acknowledge the loss of the birth country, culture, language and biological family experienced by international adoptees
- Yeondae-PDX: “Korean Adoptee (KAD) activist collective based out of Portland, OR, that stands in solidarity with BIPOC communities and supports BLM. Our core joint action issues that we advocate for are: BLM, Immigration Reform and Adoptee Rights.”
- Asian Adult Adoptees of Washington (AAAW): “AAAW is a resource that provides mentoring, fellowship and educational opportunities for Asian American and Pacific Islander adoptees and the community. Based in Seattle, AAW is a federal 501(c)(3) status nonprofit organization led by an all volunteer board of directors.”
- Cam Lee Small - Therapy Redeemed: (Korean Adoptee therapist) “Your Adoption-Informed Therapist (952-333-4688) I help trans-racial and adoptive families navigate the complexities of adoption through a selection of professional counseling and education services, accessible 100% online.”
- China's Children International: 2 groups (adoptees/adoptive parents and strictly for adoptees only. “Our mission: We aim to empower Chinese adoptees from all over the world by providing an inclusive and supportive community for all of us who share this common beginning.”
- Families with Children from China NYC: “FCC is a nonprofit organization supporting Chinese adoptees and their families and friends. Founded in the early 1990s in Manhattan as a parent support group, and expanding to a nation-wide network, our members include adoptive parents, Chinese adoptees and their siblings and other relatives, as well as friends of the organization.”

