

ADOPTION MOSAIC

CONSCIOUS ADOPTION: TRANSRACIAL PARENTING

This six-session course (parent group) meets weekly for 1.5 hours to focus on different and vital aspects of transracial adoption. Astrid, along with four additional transracial adoptees, will provide participants with in depth knowledge AND the opportunity to move theory into practice. This group will learn about and examine:

- The HISTORY of race and adoption and why it is essential to understand and know how to talk about with your child(ren)
- Developmental stages of racial identity for non-transracially adopted children vs. transracially adopted children
- Biases and Hesitations when talking about race & racism
- What being a Race Ally REALLY means as a parent of a child of color
- The role race & racism play in your Family and Community

Astrid is the founder and director of Adoption Mosaic. For nearly 30 years Astrid has traveled the country to lead youth groups and present workshops on various topics focusing on both adoption and race. Prior to starting Adoption Mosaic, Astrid worked and served on the board of directors in both the private and public sectors of various adoption organizations: The Rocky Mountain Adoption Exchange, Oregon Post Adoption Resource Center (ORPARC), Holt International, Rocky Mountain Adoption Exchange, North American Council on Adoptable Children (NACAC), Northwest Adoptive Parent Association (NAFA), to name just a few. Astrid is also an international adoptee.
