

Dr. Hoang Le, MD
General Surgery

Dr. Le graduated summa cum laude from the University of St. Thomas in Houston, where he was recognized as the outstanding graduate in both chemistry and mathematics. He earned his medical degree from the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center School of Medicine in Lubbock and completed his residency training in general surgery at the Texas Tech Health Sciences Center in El Paso.

A board-certified general surgeon, Dr. Le is a member of the American College of Surgeons, the American Medical Association, and the Texas Medical Association. His clinical specialties include robotic and laparoscopic surgery, as well as the treatment of cancerous tumors, thyroid, and parathyroid conditions.

Fluent in both Spanish and Vietnamese, he sees patients aged 4 years and older. Dr. Le believes in communicating directly with his patients, using clear and simple language to ensure they understand their need for surgery and how it will affect them. He considers the most rewarding part of his work to be helping his patients lead better lives.

In his free time, Dr. Le enjoys spending time with his family, playing the guitar, and participating in street sports.
