You're Invited to Partner with SERJobs

Join us for a Community Resource Event designed to connect individuals and families with essential services. We're partnering with trusted organizations to help remove everyday barriers to financial stability and workforce participation.

Who is Attending

- SERJobs members and program participants
- Local job seekers and working families
- Individuals navigating housing, employment, or financial challenges

How to Get Involved:

Your services make a real impact. Help individuals and families build stronger, more stable futures - one resource at a time. We invite you to host an information table, share materials, or provide on-site services at the event.
