CLIMB HIGHER: REACHING NEW HEIGHTS IN GIVING AND DISCIPLESHIP (811066) Author: McKenzie, Scott and Miller, Kristine. Authentic Christian stewardship arises from a clear and moving vision of a congregation's ministry priorities, and the desire to give in order to make those priorities a reality. The authors draw on an analogy comparing stewardship development and summiting Mount Everest: C - Clear and compelling vision; L - Leadership; I - Inspiration; M - Motivation; B - Boldly ask. 128 Pages.

COMING REVOLUTION IN CHURCH ECONOMICS: WHY TITHES AND OFFERINGS ARE NO LONGER ENOUGH, AND WHAT YOU CAN DO ABOUT IT (820177) Author: Deymaz, Mark and Li, Harry. Tithes and offerings alone are no longer enough to provide for the needs of the local church, enable pastors to pursue opportunities, or sustain long-term ministry impact. Growing financial burdens on the middle class, marginal increases in contributions to religious organizations, shifting generational attitudes toward giving, and changing demographics are having a negative impact on church budgets. What's needed is disruptive innovation in church economics. For churches to not only survive but thrive in the future, leaders must learn to leverage assets, bless the community, empower entrepreneurs, and create multiple streams of income to effectively fund mission. Chapters:

Understanding the need; Free your mind; Stop begging for money; Create multiple streams of income; Leverage church assets; Become a benevolent owner; Monetize existing services; Start new businesses. Includes discussion questions. 255 Pages.

CREATING FINANCIALLY SUSTAINABLE CONGREGATIONS (821068) Author: Elrod, James. How can growing churches develop a financial framework that will enhance their mission? This book, which does not assume readers' familiarity with principles of accounting or finance, will help facilitate constructive conversations between clergy and lay leaders on money matters. By describing in everyday language some of the practical issues that promote (or erode) financial sustainability, this book will remove the mystery and frustration faith communities often experience when discussing their financial challenges. Chapters: An introduction; Terminologies and typologies; Church financial statements; Capital, capitalization, capital formation, and endowments; Budgets and budgeting; The philanthropic landscape; Generational considerations; Managing crisis; Sustainable church. Includes discussion questions and bibliography. 117 Pages.
