The 19th annual Farm Heritage Festival of East Jordan Church, located at 22027 Polo Rd, Sterling, will be held Saturday August 29th! The admission and parking are free!

The day will start with a good ol' fashioned farm breakfast consisting of scrambled eggs, pancakes and biscuits/gravy from 7 am to 9 am. Tickets for breakfast are $10 for adults, $ 5 for youth to age 13, under age 5 receive free breakfast. Breakfast tickets are available from church members before the event or at the door.

There will be an activity center for kids, youth and adults to try their hand at powering hand cranked items such as corn sheller or a rope maker. There will be a bouncy house for children! A farm animal zoo will again feature dairy cows, sheep, goats and more. This is definitely a fun zone for children, youth, and adults of all ages.

There will be static displays of farm machinery, tractors, trucks, lawn mowers and more all day. Tractor and hay rack rides are free and available through out the day! Again, admission to the show is free!

A lunch stand will operate from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm featuring sandwiches, baked beans, salads, chips and desserts. Proceeds from the lunch benefit various missions and functions of the East Jordan Church. There will also be a bake sale during the day.

The festival honors the Christian family farming history common in the Midwest. The community surrounding East Jordan Church help make the event successful. There will be a lot of activities for children and youth! Please contact Pastor Jim Miller at 815 866-6088 for information on the festival. Hope to see you there!
