FALL Communion Service Breakfast

Dr. Norval Brown's education includes a BA from The University of Chicago, Master of Divinity from Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, and Doctor of Ministry from Chicago Theological Seminary. He holds a certificate in spiritual direction from The Claret Center in Chicago and has been involved in The Academy for Spiritual Formation (a two year program of The Upper Room) as a participant, faculty presenter and member of the leadership team. Norval is an oblate at St. Benedict's Abbey in Peoria, IL and he serves on the Advisory Board of the Portiuncula Center for Prayer in Frankfort, IL. He brings gifts in spiritual formation to the Church as he is called to lead retreats, revivals, and individual spiritual direction. Norval is married to Andrea Lynette Brookins, aka Gorgeous, and they are the parents of four children and a yorkie and grandparents of the two cutest grandchildren the world has ever seen. They reside in Homewood, IL.

- Remember to bring your banks and / or your Men's check for the "Meals for Million". We have helped our conference to be the number 1 Conference in the country the last three years. Help make a difference in feeding the country.
