This week's sermon is about how God wants us to die to our own identity - how we dress, act, what we're known for and how other people see us - and live for Him! We are called to be witnesses and disciples to help others learn about how amazing our God is! How can we do that?

This packet is best suited for our older kids: elementary aged readers and writers

God calls us to be His disciples and followers. He wants us to be His witnesses in this world.

This is the identity God gives us. Circle the words below that describe attributes of disciples of God.

follower

talented

popular

lots of 'likes'

understanding

teachable

prayerful

selfish

best dressed

compassionate

In today's bible verses, the apostles continued to teach and preach at the temple even though they were told not to by the leaders. Even though it might not reflect well on them and they had to give everything up. What are you willing to give up to be a witness for God? Write or draw some things in the box below that you could give up to be a better disciple for Christ.

Memory verse:

Look up the verse, write it down, and memorize it this week.

Acts 5:32

identity

Write it!

What does it mean?

Your identity is how you act, what you like to do, how other people see you and what we want to be known for. God calls us to be witnesses for Him in this world. How can we do that?

God wants us to not worry about how other people see us. It doesn't matter if we are rich or poor, popular or not, what we're good at or anything at all if we don't help bring more people to God by teaching others about Him. What would your life look like if He was the ONE thing you lived for? Draw a picture of yourself below!

Memory verse:
Acts 5:32a

“We are witnesses to these things...”
