One of the verses we really focused on today is John 13:34. Jesus says to show others love, just as He has loved us. As a family, discuss how Jesus had loved the disciples. How does He still show us that love today?

Think about how we show love to others. Are we limited in who we should show love to?

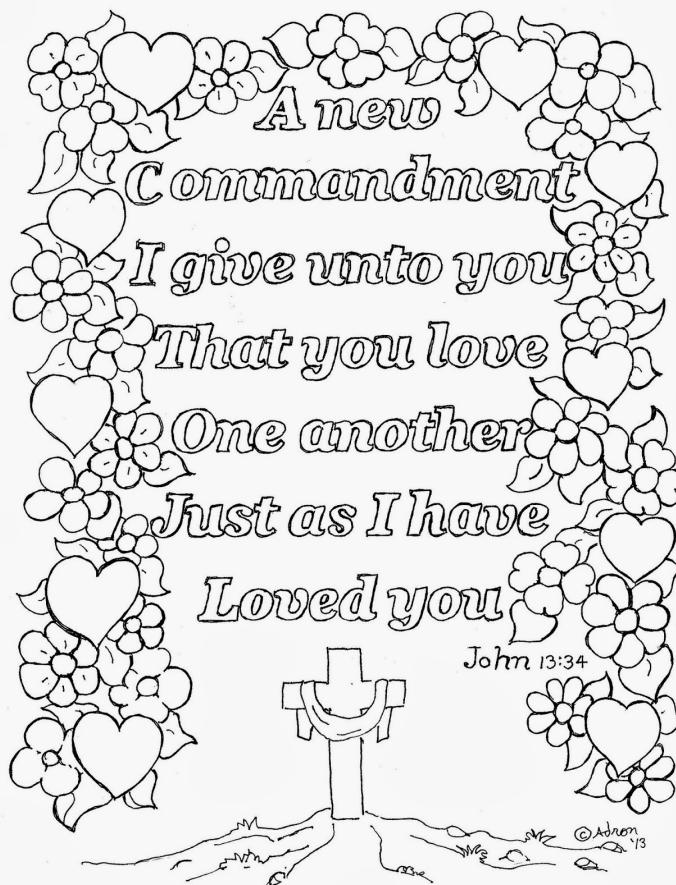

This packet is best suited for our older kids: elementary aged readers and writers

Write down names or draw pictures of who you can show love to, and how you can show love to them.

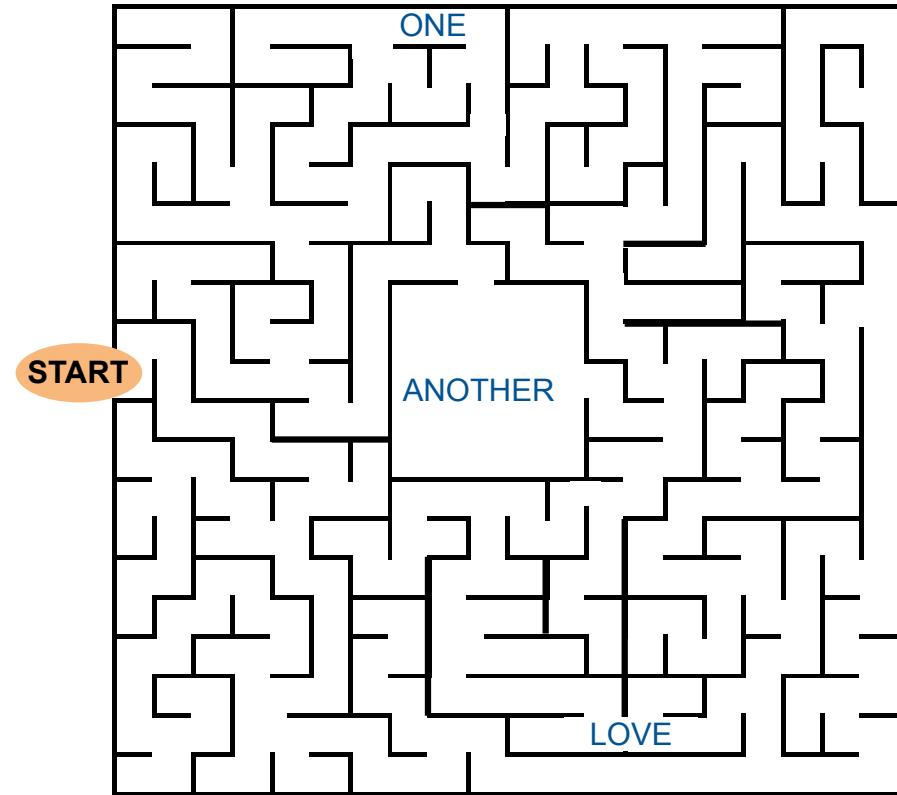

Someone I see everyday

Someone I know from church, school, or my neighborhood

Someone who has made me upset before

Someone I don't know yet (be creative!)

Start at the location marked, then see if you can connect the words in the correct order: LOVE ONE ANOTHER
