Continuing the conversation

Sometimes our unkind words can cause what feels like a giant fire that causes death and ashes. But through Christ, we can be forgiven and brought together with others we've hurt and people have hurt us. God calls us to forgive others, too, so we can see the beauty that can come from ashes.

This packet is best suited for our older kids: elementary aged readers and writers

God wants us to forgive others, just as HE has forgiven us! Help the man get to his friend to ask him for forgiveness for hurting him.

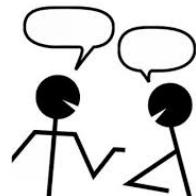

Think of a time you were REALLY mad about something someone did to you or said to you. After you calmed down, did you forgive that person? Tell how you forgave them in the space below.

reconciliation

Write it!

What does it mean?

Reconciliation is a big word that means making up after a fight or becoming friends again after we are hurt or we hurt someone. In order to do this, we have to apologize and forgive others just like God forgave us!

God calls us to forgive others, just as He forgives us! Write or draw about a time YOU forgave someone.

Once, I was upset. But I calmed down. Then I forgave the person who hurt me. This is how I forgave them...

Memory verse:
Ephesians 4:32

'Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another as God in Christ forgave you.'
