In different versions of the bible, the word fear and awe are used in Acts 2:43. How are fear and awe alike? How are they different? Should we be afraid of God? How can fear/awe bring us closer to God and help us to learn more about his character?

Draw or write some ideas of how you can experience the awe/fear of the Lord!

One way we can be in awe of God is to learn more about his character. Find these words that describe God in the word search!

One way we can become more in awe of God is through learning about Him in the bible! Help the boy find his way to the bible!

What does it mean?

Awe means a very strong feeling of wonder mixed with respect or fear. When we are in awe of God, we learn more about Him!

Memory verse:

Acts 2:43

'And awe came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles.' (NIV)
